COURSE OVERVIEW:

Are you looking to become a master at traffic law? This course is designed to build upon basic traffic enforcement skills learned during the DOJ's 720-hour Police Academy. It is primarily intended to provide enhanced skills and increased efficiency for those officers who already conduct traffic enforcement measures. Students can expect an exhaustive look into traffic related statutes, discussion on optimum enforcement strategies, and recognition of contributing factors and/or common violations precipitating traffic crashes.

This course deals only peripherally with Commercial Motor Vehicle (CMV) operations and Chapter 348 (Size, Weight, and Load). Those topics are covered more comprehensively in our sister program "Truck Law."

TOPIC OF INSTRUCTION:

- Why Enforce Traffic Laws?
- Anatomy of a Statute / Chapter 340 Definitions
- Chapter 110 Motor Vehicles / Authority, Powers, and Duties
- Chapter 341 Registration of Vehicles
- Chapter 343 Operators' Licenses
- Chapter 344 Financial Responsibility
- Chapter 346 Rules of the Road
- Chapter 347 Equipment of Vehicles
- Chapter 348 Size, Weight, and Load (limited coverage)
- Trans. 305 Standards for Vehicle Equipment
- Relevant Caselaw
