PROGRAM DIRECTOR:

Sgt. Benjamin Hamilton
Benjamin.Hamilton@dot.wi.gov
608-716-1724

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

December 20, 2024

TOPICS OF INSTRUCTION INCLUDE:

- Overview of pre crash data sources and recorded crash pulse data
- Calculating Δv from acceleration data
- Calculating impulse Δv from x/y Δv data
- Calculating pdf of from x/y Δv data
- Adjusting x axis Δv to represent impulse Δv
- Single Equation Approach to 360° Momentum Analysis
- Calculating Impact & Post Impact Velocities from CDR data (Δv & pdf)
- Reconciling Pre Crash and Post Crash CDR data
- Analyzing CDR data in Context of your Reconstruction

OBJECTIVES:

The purpose of this class is to teach the class participants how to work with the CDR data, particularly how to properly use the Δv data to determine impact and post impact velocities in various types of collision scenarios. All the projects presented in the class are based on actual collisions using downloads obtained from those collision. Reinforcing that the techniques taught in this class can in fact be applied to the real world.

The class provides ample case studies to effectively illustrate the concepts and invite students to provide cases of their own for review. This is a very hands-on, but flexible class and well worth the tuition.

PREREQUISITES:

Previous attendance in a beginner level Crash Data Retrieval/Analyst course

ITEMS TO BRING:

- Computer
- Power cable for computer
- Notebook/notepad
- Scientific Calculator
- Pencil and pen

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

January 3, 2025

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

“This course will teach you how to recognize and interpret traffic crash evidence as it relates to occupant seating positions. We will show you how to determine the occupant movement from the crash damage and the subsequent injuries that resulted.

We will illustrate the basics of occupant movement and teach you how to ascertain the direction of movement during a collision. You will learn how to determine occupant seating positions and safety belt usage and we will examine the significance of airbag and other restraint deployments.

We’ll show you how to read the medical records that can be obtained with a warrant as well as autopsy reports of the injuries sustained by the vehicle’s occupants so you can understand how they relate to the investigation. When correlated with the vehicle damage, these reports can provide further evidence of occupant positions and movement.

Actual crashes will be used as case studies to allow you to put the theories into practice. This course is designed for traffic crash investigators who have a good working knowledge of the techniques and applications of formulas taught in basic crash investigation courses.” – Institute of Police Technology and Management (IPTM) <https://www.campusce.net/iptm/course/course.aspx?C=142&pc=45>

Students who successfully complete this course can earn 40 ACTAR CEUs

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

January 10, 2025

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

“Based on the most recent edition of our classic textbook, Traffic Crash Reconstruction, this course focuses on analyzing and interpreting information that has been collected at lower levels of investigation in order to describe the crash and the events leading to actual impact in as much detail as possible.

In addition to the prerequisite courses (Crash Investigation 1 and 2 and Vehicle Dynamics), participants should possess an understanding of physics and math skills that include high-school level algebra, geometry, and trigonometry.

Students apply the lessons from daily lecture material to real-world case study situations — an instruction format that provides students with the training necessary to reconstruct traffic crashes.

After successfully completing this course, students will have the ability to reconstruct crash situations using momentum and mechanics.”

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

January 5th, 2025

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course prepares law enforcement professionals to effectively administer and teach the Operating a Motor Vehicle While Intoxicated (OMVWI)/Standardized Field Sobriety Testing (SFST) training program. Emphasizes teaching and learning techniques that promote active learning, support learners with a variety of learning preferences and needs and generate continuous improvement in teaching and learning.

The first part of this course will focus on the basic principles and techniques of teaching OMVWI/SFST, and on the specific application of those principles and techniques to the curriculum employed for classroom training in SFSTs. During this day the student-instructors become able to:

- Describe the documents that make up the standard curriculum packages for OMVWI/SFST;
- Describe the content and format of the lesson plans for OMVWI/SFST;
- Describe the characteristics of a good OMVWI/SFST instructor;
- Carry out the instructor preparation tasks for any session of the OMVWI/SFST course;
- Describe how to plan and manage an alcohol workshop;
- Administer the use of NHTSA-approved video tapes for optional SFST training.
- During the second part of the course, the student-instructor will have opportunities to apply what they have learned by teaching selected portions of the OMVWI/SFST course. The instructor candidates will be told their practice teaching assignments on the first day of the course, and they will have time in class on the first day to begin preparing for the assignments.

PREREQUISITES:

- Satisfactorily completed either the 32-hour Wisconsin Criminal Justice Instructor Development Course (CJIDC) or the Teaching Methods Course put on by the Wisconsin Technical College System;
- Satisfactorily completed SFST training, based on the NHTSA SFST curriculum or its equivalent;
- Participated in two "live" volunteer drinking subject practice sessions (alcohol workshops) during which they personally administered the horizontal gaze nystagmus, walk and turn, and one-leg-stand test to persons who have consumed alcohol; or
- Participated in one "live" volunteer drinking subject practice session (alcohol workshop) during which they personally administered the horizontal gaze nystagmus, walk and turn, and one-leg-stand test to persons who have consumed alcohol, and participated in one NHTSA approved video-taped session of drinking subjects; or
- Participated in two NHTSA approved video-taped sessions of drinking subjects; and
- Demonstrated continued proficiency with the SFSTs, either in actual enforcement operations or in alcohol workshops, or both, since the completion of their training.
- NOTE: Anyone enrolling in this course is expected to know SFST skills prior to attending the course. This is an instructor course. A practical and written pre-test will be administered at the start of the course. If you do not pass these tests you will not be allowed to continue in the course.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Advanced Roadside Impaired Driving Enforcement, (ARIDE) is a 16-hour course that was developed by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, (NHTSA) to address the gap in training between Standardized Field Sobriety Testing (SFST) and the Drug Evaluation and Classification (DEC) training.

This course will cover:

- SFST skills refresher
- Advanced sobriety tests
- Common/trending drugs of abuse
- Driving while impaired by drugs
- How drugs affect the human body
- Observable effects drug combinations
- Medical conditions that mimic drug impairment
- Pre & post arrest procedures
- Legal update with pertinent case law relating to OWI and drugged driving cases.

Officers looking for a SFST review and a better understanding on drugs that impair driving are highly encouraged to take this course.

PREREQUISITES:

Must be NHTSA certified in Standardized Field Sobriety Testing (SFST).

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Experience the most advanced training in criminal interdiction & hidden compartment detection with Dynamic Police Training. Our TrapMate* class is designed to provide you with the most up-to-date information, materials, and techniques for conducting proper traffic stops and implementing effective search techniques.

The TrapMate* class will break down every aspect of a roadside encounter to include: pre-stop indicators, vehicle registration, sequencing identification, staged and cloned vehicle identification, case law, PC and consensual encounters, roadside interview techniques, proper searching techniques & identification of hidden compartments. Additionally, you will learn about post-seizure reporting and proper report writing to ensure a complete understanding of the process.

The class features live videos, pictures, in-car recordings, and other materials demonstrating the process for proactive criminal Interdiction from start to finish. This course provides top-tier education that benefits students, their agencies, and the communities they serve. The dynamics of law enforcement and patterns of criminal activity are ever-changing which is why it is important to have the knowledge necessary to be successful, adaptable, and confident in the work you do.

After successfully completing the TrapMate* class, students will acquire a comprehensive understanding of how to identify motor vehicles involved in criminal activity, unique interview techniques for eliciting important information, and advanced search techniques to effectively uncover hidden compartments. Additionally, students will have a thorough understanding of how to conduct these investigations legally and ethically to succeed in court. Equipped with this vital knowledge, students can make a meaningful impact as they actively patrol and protect their local communities, roadways, and highways.

TOPICS OF INSTRUCTION INCLUDE:

This course prepares Wisconsin Law Enforcement Standards Board (LESB) certified officers to effectively administer and teach the EVOC training program. This course emphasizes teaching and learning techniques that promote active learning, support learners with a variety of learning preferences and needs, and generate continuous improvements in teaching and learning.

The goal of this program is to prepare certified officers who are proficient in driving a vehicle under emergency conditions to deliver LESB-approved EVOC curriculum.

OBJECTIVES:

- Identify instructor responsibilities
- Describe the components of the basic EVOC curriculum packet (orientation to course materials).
- Review decision-making and legal issues surrounding law enforcement driving, including normal patrol operation, emergency response, and pursuit driving.
- Prepare the EVOC instructor candidate teaching assignments.
- Describe how to run a driving range.
- Demonstrate how to teach driving fundamentals and correct student errors (demonstration on range).
- Present your teaching assignment.
- Critique the EVOC Instructor Course

PREREQUISITES:

- Completed Criminal Justice Instructor Development Course (CJ-IDC)
- Complete Instructor Training Course Application DJ-LE-336
 - State Patrol employees should bring the form completed and it will be signed at the Academy.
 - Personnel from outside of the DSP need to have the form signed by an administrator from their agency and submit a copy to the Academy in advance of admission to the course.

Directions to Instructor Candidates:

- This is an instructor course. Anyone attending the instructor course is expected to know the below skills prior to attending the course. You will be tested at the beginning of the course. If you do not pass these skills you will not be allowed to continue in the course.
 - Take the written pre-test to assess your knowledge of the basic EVOC skills. You must pass with a minimum score of 80% to be admitted into the EVOC instructor course.
 - Perform basic EVOC driving skills on a driving range to assess your knowledge of the basic EVOC skills.
 - If you do not pass the practical pre-test to the satisfaction of the MIT you will not be admitted into the EVOC instructor course.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

March 14, 2025

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

“Traffic Crash Reconstruction 2 is the fifth and final course in our foundational series and is a continuation of the skills learned in Reconstruction 1. This prerequisite to many of our advanced Crash Investigation & Reconstruction courses is based on Lynn Fricke’s textbook Traffic Crash Reconstruction. Students receive expert instruction through lecture and daily real-world case studies, which tie lecture material to hands-on analysis.

Students expand their understanding of crashes and analyze collisions using conservation of energy before delving into special velocity calculations for such situations as vehicle falls, flips, and rollovers. Participants also learn basic skills for analyzing Event Data Recorder information and how to apply such data to traditional reconstructions. They also are introduced to the Monte Carlo Statistical Analysis and learn to solve momentum-based collision sequences using spreadsheet analysis.

Upon successful completion of this course, students will possess the core skills of traffic collision reconstruction.”

TOPICS OF INSTRUCTION INCLUDE:

This hybrid Criminal Justice Instructor Development Course – (IDC) & Scenario Instructor Course is designed to provide instructors the knowledge, tools and understanding of the safety and administrative needs associated with scenario training and testing activities. It will also prepare Wisconsin Law Enforcement Standards Board (LESB) certified officers to effectively administer and teach LESB approved curricula. This course will certify you for both LESB courses.

This course emphasizes teaching and learning techniques that promote active learning, support learners with a variety of learning preferences and needs, and generate continuous improvements in teaching and learning. It will also prepare instructor personnel to provide realistic, safe and effective preparatory level training and assessments, as well as to serve as a safety protocol aid (although not mandatory) for active law enforcement/jail, in-service and law enforcement/jail community training programs. The scenario portion of the course objectives are established through the roles and functions of the Safety Coordinator (SO) and the Exercise Control Officer (ECO) and common safety practices, as outlined in the scenario instructor training manual. Objectives included in the manual consist of; coaching techniques, debriefing techniques, evaluation, directing of role players and ensuring compliance with established safety protocols.

OBJECTIVES:

To successfully complete the CJ-IDC & Scenario course, instructor candidates must:

- Present two teaching assignments to the class
- Present one scenario teaching assignment
- Pass a written/achievement examination with a grade of 80% or higher
- Demonstrate proficiency in adult learning and teaching techniques taught throughout the course
- Demonstrate administration of scenario-based training in safe and effective manner throughout the course
